STANE — N.C., Jr., known as "Junior," age 80 years, passed away Sunday, December 3, 2006. Junior, the son of Notley and Drucie (Rosetta) Stane, was born September 8, 1926, in Bigelow, AR. He grew up in Hartford, AR, and as a young man he worked for McConnell Funeral Home. He was married to Jeanie Stenhouse of Midland, AR, on January 21, 1954. They moved to Tulsa, OK, in 1957, then to Owasso in 1960. Junior worked at McDonnell-Douglas and radio station KOMA before becoming a television engineer at KJRH (formerly KVOO), Channel 2 in Tulsa, where he worked for over 30 years. He was a member of Owasso Masonic Lodge #545, A.F. & A.M., for over 50 years. He grew up surrounded by music and became an accomplished fiddle player and bass player in his own right. Although somewhat shy, he influenced many people with his wry sense of humor and his music. All 4 of his children and 3 of his grandchildren played instruments in band. Several other children went on to play instruments and to share a love of music after hearing Junior play. Junior was preceded in death by: his brother, Roy Stane of Owasso; his sister, Mary Lou Hobbs of San Pedro, CA; and grandbaby, Shawna Marie Stane. He is survived by: his loving wife, Jeanie of the home; brother, Andrew "Peewee" Stane, Owasso; daughter and son-in-law, Mary and Marvin Baker, Sperry; son and daughter-in-law, Notley and Linda Stane, Owasso; son, Fred Stane, Tulsa; daughter and son-in-law, Jeanie and Walter Lackey, Collinsville; 11 grandchildren, 3 great-grandchildren, and numerous nieces and nephews. Floyd L. Walker

WALKER — Floyd L., pre-eminent American Trial Lawyer, and a founding Partner of Pray, Walker, Jackman, Williamson & Marler, died Wednesday, December 13, 2006, he was 87. Mr. Walker was born in Kiefer, OK, on March 27, 1919, to Willis Hersey Walker and Josephine McFarland Walker. A 1938 graduate of Kiefer High School, Floyd moved to Tulsa, where he was employed at the Carnation milk plant. He was offered a job as a Letter Carrier in November 1940, where he continued to work until he joined the U.S. Army Air Corps Aviation Cadet Program in August, 1942. After completing his training, he was assigned to a combat crew as a Bombardier, flying 26 missions over occupied Europe in a B24. Actor, Major Jimmy Stewart was his first Squadron Commander. Floyd's 26th mission ended with a crash landing in Sweden, where he was interned for 5 months. After Mr. Walker's internment ended, he began training to become a pilot. He was awarded the Air Medal with four oak leaf clusters, and the Distinguished Flying Cross, but the most important thing he received as a result of his military service, was his eligibility to complete his education, and to become a LAWYER! If he was not the first new student to enter the University of Tulsa's College of Law under the G.I. Bill, he was among the very first. After taking the Bar Exam, he was sworn in as a lawyer on March 15, 1949. Mr. Walker's first employment, as a lawyer, was as a Claims Attorney for The Standard Insurance Company, a casualty insurer for companies engaged in the oil business. He continued with that work until the spring of 1953, when he opened his own Law Office, as a solo general practitioner. During the next 12 to 15 years his solo practice continued to develop until it became mostly referrals from other lawyers to handle the trial litigation. His practice was also expanding from personal injury cases, into more complex litigation including Intellectual Property cases, defending and pursuing Patent litigation, wrongful taking and use of Trade Secrets, as well as litigation involving various aspects of State and Federal antitrust laws. He was President of the Tulsa County Bar in 1973. During the 1970's, he was on the Oklahoma Bar Association's Board of Governors. He became a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers in 1972, chairing the Oklahoma Fellows in 1982, and 1983. One of the most memorable cases that he handled was the antitrust case of Telex v. I.B.M. The Supreme Court case was the subject of an article in the Yale Law Review; the Texas Law Review; The University of Pennsylvania Law Review, as well as many others and a number of best-selling books. He was honored by the University Of Tulsa College Of Law, in 2001, by a Life Time Achievement Award; and, in 2002, was one of three individuals designated, Distinguished Alumna 2002, by the University of Tulsa. At the time, he was the only graduate in the history of the TU College of Law, to have ever been so honored. Along with his outstanding professional accomplishments, Floyd will be remembered as a man willing to give of himself with a generosity of spirit that gifted educational institutions, charities, family and friends. His mentorship challenged everyone to attain higher goals, and build on the foundation of good will and personal achievement. He is survived by: his wife, Virginia Walker; a son, Jim Walker; daughters, Marylea Byrd, Janice Cady, Joyce Anglin and Cheryl Newman; 11 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren. Friends are making memorial contributions to the University of Tulsa Law School. Service will be held 10 a.m., Saturday, December 16, at Sharp Chapel, on the campus of the University of Tulsa. www.fitzgeraldivy.chapel.com. The Fitzgerald Ivy Chapel, 585-1151.

Robert D. Frederick

FREDERICK — Robert D., 69, passed away peacefully at home on Monday, December 11, 2006. Born in Plainview, TX, April 21, 1937, to Dalton and Opal Frederick. Bob graduated from high school in Cushing, OK, Class of '55 and from the School of Engineering, University of Oklahoma, 1963. He is survived by: his wife of 41 years, Judy Bostock, formerly of Tulsa; and his 3 sons, Darby of St. Louis, MO, Clay of Manhattan, KS, Bryan of Modesto, CA; and 9 grandchildren. Bob was a retired Industrial and Chemical Sales Engineer. His memberships included Pleasant Hill Lions Club, Walnut Creek Elks, California Youth Football, Vintage Mustang Owners, and Good-Guys Classic Car Club. He was a lifetime member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon Fraternity. Bob was extremely interested in genealogy in his retirement years and traveled throughout the U.S. in search of family tree members. His dedication and persistence in genealogy inspired and helped many others find past and current relatives. Bob was also interested in old cars from the 30's, 40's, 50's, and 60's and enjoyed collecting miniature models. His enthusiasm was not just limited to the small scale, but he also restored vintage cars with his sons, including two classic '65 Mustangs. A Celebration of Life service will be held in the future. Memorial gifts may be made to the National Kidney Foundation, The American Heart Association, or the American Cancer Society. "Old, tried and out of gas, I'm at my journey's end. Wish I were there with you all." Robert Frederick.

Crash kills McCurtain man

A McCurtain man was killed Wednesday in a two-vehicle collision in Haskell County.

Jerrad Dill, 29, was driving east on Oklahoma 9 about two miles west of Keota when his 1995 Toyota sedan crossed the center line and hit an oncoming pickup, the Oklahoma Highway Patrol reported.

Dill had massive injuries and was taken to St. John Medical Center in Tulsa, where he later died, the OHP reported.

His passenger, Ginger Dill,

47, of McCurtain, and four of the five people in the second vehicle, a 2001 Ford pickup, apparently were not injured, troopers said.

The only person in the pickup who was injured was passenger Marcelus Flowers, 55, of Oklahoma City, who was treated for a head injury at the Haskell County Hospital and released, troopers said.

Everyone involved had been wearing a seat belt, according to the OHP.
