INTRODUCTION

Two very valuable publications on the Tice families have been received since my "The Tice Families in America", 1947, the first "A Genealogy of One Division of the Tice Family in America", 25 pp. by Wilfrid S. Dowling, mainly new material to me about the descendants of Andrew (my #157) of Montgomery, Orange Co., N.Y. but including the latter's ancestors Johan Jury and Henrich, agreeing quite closely with my book. The introduction is paraphrased from my first paragraph.

The other publication of 25 pages is on the Maryland family by Elinor M. Tice covering perhaps more than 300 descendants of another Andrew (my #23). These descendants are scattered all over the mid-west and west as well as in Maryland.

Another valuable contribution is a 13 page outline of the Gilbert Tice family (my #71) of the Montgomery family by Mrs. Florence Dayton Benson with some help from her sister, Mrs. Ruth Dayton Roosa.

Another valuable contribution was the pertinent pages of "Ancestors and Descendants of Dr. William Oliver Jones and His Wife Elizabeth Clay Lindsay" by Dr. William J. Mann, Jr. of Warren, Pa. This traces some lines from Jacob Tice, one of the first Tice settlers in North Carolina.

Another event which adds little to a popular account but is extremely valuable genealogically about the Montgomery family was the discovery and publication of the marriage records of the Shawangunk Church from 1790-1820 published in the "N.Y. Gen. and Biog. Record", 87. This adds proof of about a dozen early marriages there, mostly children of John Christian Tice.

I have written, without success, at least eight letters trying to get in touch with Miss Tice or some relative of hers to make sure she had no objection to my including what she sent me and possibly additions to it. The only reason for using it is that (at appreciable net extra cost to me) it helps bring together, in my two books, everything I have been able to discover about the Tices. A letter addressed to Mr. Dowling was also returned as undeliverable.

As a result of my book, several members of the family have sent in other valuable material about their lines, even back to the names of children born up to about 150 years ago. I have been glad to include these. Mrs. Doris C. Farebrother of Ontario has indicated the wealth of material available there on Gilbert Tice (#9 of the Monmouth Co., N.J. line) who is the only Tice who was prominent in his loyalty to the British during the Revolution. (The only other Loyalist elsewhere I recollect was Abraham who settled at Digby.) In the early days her family spoke of Gilbert as "Uncle", but we haven't been able to find the connection. A few families migrated to Ontario shortly after 1800 before moving to Mich. or elsewhere in the West. She also furnished the material under "Other Tice Families" on her line from William b. (1792) who she understands came from Bucks Co., Pa.

A summary of all the Tices in the United States in 1790 Census is illuminating.

Introduction

I have had some of the apparently most promising later census records in Washington searched but at age 82 I can't have comprehensive searches made there nor write to every Tice whose address I could find from a comprehensive collection of city directories and telephone directories, as I did for my first book. I have tried to correspond with every Tice whose address I had but one of the most interesting phases of modern life is that 25 year old addresses aren't of much use now, even if the party hasn't died and a good share of those I corresponded with 25 years ago were elderly. What a contrast with 100 or 200 years ago!

I have tried to reorganize all the material received into my form of presentation and have accepted it as correct.

This is arranged in the same order as my Vol. I by corresponding chapters with family identification in the same numbering system. Year dates in parentheses are guesses, mostly based on census ages. Asterisks after names indicate that more information is given under the separate account numbers.

MONMOUTH CO., N.J. (Pp. 16-43)

9 GILBERT TICE from notes compiled partly from records in the Ontario Archives Bldg., Toronto, served with the English in the French and Indian War, then became Capt. in Butler's Rangers, was a close friend of Sir William Johnson, Supt. of Indian Affairs, who by securing Indian support for the British cause really saved Canada for Britain; was placed by him in charge of his Inn near Johnstown, N.Y.; went to Canada with Guy Johnson and other Loyalists during the Revolution; went with Joseph Brant (three months) to England; in 1785 or 1786 was assigned 3000 acres of land of which he had drawn 1100 (before he died) in the northeastern part of Mount Dorchester, now Stamford, in the District of Niagara, the rest being assigned to Christien in 1796; was appointed Sheriff of Nassau; and on 7 Nov. 1792 was referred to by the Surveyor General as the "late Major Tice". Mrs. Christina Tice survived him by more than 20 years. Up until 1812 "Mrs. Tice's" was a landmark of note. His will was registered in 1822 by David Bastedo.

Mrs. Doris C. T. Farebrother of Chippewa, Ont., sent me this information with much more about her ancestors to identify whom she has searched considerably (See material for P. 270). When young she heard stories about "Uncle Gilbert" and at one time his gun was in their family (with oval silver piece with an Indian head and date hammered in the stock). She has an old document of 6 Apr. 1809 between Gilbert, John Batchellor and David Tice Bastedo. It mentions Gilbert's dau. Rebeka "his only child".

Gilbert's will of 8 Dec. 1790 (filed at St. Catherines, Ontario) leaves his estate for life to his wife Christien and after that to his "nefew" David Bastedo and his son-in-law Ebenezer Batchelor on the express condition that he - "shall become a loyal citizen of Great Britain and reside in the British dominions". If he doesn't comply (which he didn't) within 12 months all goes to his "nefew". Gilbert had at one time owned considerable land in the Mohawk Valley but got into financial deep water and the land sold under execution.

Mrs. Farebrother gives several Canadian references, but without complete identification, apparently mostly to the Ottawa Archivist, Vol. XXI, the Ontario Archives, 1905, the Canadian Archives (Haldimand Papers B 105, and 1904) and N.Y. State Library Collection of William Johnson Papers Mss. In another letter Mrs. Farebrother says there is considerable material in various Canadian archives and some in London about Gilbert Tice, mostly about his property there, some land of which was in dispute as late as 1928.

Christina died about 1823-4 and David Tice Bastedo set aside a burial plot for her at Binbrook. Capt. Gilbert Tice is in the "List of U.E. Loyalists in the Indian Dept. with a wife and four children". This may be also included in the Diary of Mrs. Simcoe. "Some of the Canadian records state: "At the time Gilbert Tice was in the area there was also a John Tice from N.J. believed to be his brother". Could he have been either John, #8, or John, #57, of the Monmouth Co. branch?

Rev. W. N. P. Dailey in a pamphlet (1930) on Sir William Johnson devotes a note to Gilbert Tice, including more about the history of the inn, that Gilbert visited there after the war and Zephaniah Batcheller, Esq., a Johnstown patriot married a daughter of Gilbert Tice. Who has changed his name?

44 MARY TICE, dau. of John and Ann Tice m. 20 Dec. 1778 William Schenck, bap. 11 May, 1755, having Anne b. 1 Dec. 1779, Carteenus 13 Aug. 1781, John 17 Dec. 1783, Catherine 25 Oct. 1785 and Peter 20 Dec. 1787. (Dates here appear to be of births and those in my book of baptisms.)

P. 72 ISAAC TICE m. 1 May 1808 Nelly Van Tassel

MONTGOMERY, ORANGE CO., N.Y. (Pp. 73-126)

An interesting point bearing on whether this Tice family was German or Dutch is that the 1880 census record of John #44, b. ca. 1800, gives him as born in N.Y., his father as b. Ger. and his mother 'unknown'. (Of course it was his grandfather who came to America.) I don't consider this as proof but it agrees with the fact that their first settlement here was in a German community. "History of Rise and Progress of Methodism in the Warwarsing and Mamakating Valleys" (1897) on the authority of Cornelius, #60, b. ca. 1809 says Joseph Henry came from Germany about 1735. "Portrait and Biographical Album of Branch Co., Mich." about Jonathan C. #197, b. ca. 1800 says he was of German descent. "Genealogy of Southern N.Y., II, 688, says the same. "History of Cass Co., Mich." (1882) about Isaac T., #159, b. 1796 says that his father, Henry, was of German birth and parentage.

For my first book I had Montgomery records for a few others who conceivably may have been related to the first settlers but concluded that their probabilities were not sufficient to warrant their inclusion but now I have decided to include them so each reader can judge for himself. Also they may have been related to Johann Philip Theis of Bergen Co., N.J. (P. 41).

Johann Phillipus Spies and Maria Catherine Kersington were witnesses of bap. of Phillipus Krist 15 Oct. 1751 and then they themselves had Barent bap. 3 Sept. 1753. Johann Phillipus Speis and Antje Hui were witnesses at bap. of Antje Maul 15 Oct. 1751

Friederick Spies and Antje Velde had Johannes bap. 22 Apr. 1762. Andreas Kaafman and Anna Julianna "Fire" had Johannes bap. 29 Jan. 1752. How easily "Tice" could have been misread "Fire"? I wonder how it was in German script.

1 JOSEPH HENRY TICE's wife was Antje (Hannah) Sinsabaugh, bap. Port Richmond, Staten Island, N.Y., 28 Mar. 1736, dau. of Hans Philip Sinsabaugh and Julia Catherine Pickerling according to Frank H. Rathbun in "History of the Families of Sinsibaugh Sincebaugh, Sincerbeaux, Sincerbox - 1700-1900". See my "Descent from 79 Early Immigrant Heads of Families", for how it happened that I discovered this baptism.

11 HENRY TICE. About 1925 my father visited all the Tice relatives about whom he knew and made up a list with a few dates of all of Henry's children and their children. He found something about nine children of Henry. Everything in it checks out with other information available except that he gave the name of Philip's wife, #47, as Mandy Livingston and that of Betsey's husband as Henry Corner. I haven't been too sure that she m. Henry Cornell though that appears to be the best solution. However, just discovering that in the 1880 census John, #44, was living with Betsey Conner, 68, is interesting. Could the name have been pronounced so that different people spelled it differently?

Mr. Wilfred S. Dowling in his monograph on "A Genealogy of a Division of the Tice Family in America" appropriated practically all my information (except about the children) covering "my" Henry, #11, to "his" Henry, #22, despite the fact that they had different wives and different children at the same time and lived so far apart. Then he traces the descendants of his Henry's son, Andrew, down almost to the present date.

13 PHILIP TICE - Phebe d. 27 May, 1857

17 JOHN CHRISTIAN TICE (TEYS) second marriage was in the Shawangunk church 20 May 1793 to Margaret Sinsabaugh (possibly a widow), as given in the "N.Y. Gen. and Biog. Record", 97, issued since my book. These additional records so recently discovered furnish considerable clarification about his children, especially about David and George.

101 * Peter m. 3 June 1798 Elizabeth Sinsabaugh

101a* David b. (1773). See under George #106. David now identified as David #150 of my book

102 * Catherine m. 18 Mar. 1798 James Weller

103 * James m. 25 Nov. 1804 Polly Christ

104 * Elizabeth m. 14 Feb. 1802 George Curran. The will of John C. Christ Tice of 28 Dec. 1810 gives her as his dau., wife of George I. Curran

105 * Joseph m. 24 Dec. 1808 Ann Burns

106 George of P. 228 of Rennsalaer Co., N.Y. is now identified by his will of 14 Feb. 1812 as son of John Christ Tice (by the names of his brothers, Peter, James, Joseph and sister Elizabeth Curren). It surprisingly mentions his deceased brother David and his four children. George m. 27 Feb. 1810 Hannah Sloat.

107 * Hannah (Tice) O'Neil m. (2) 6 July 1813 Adam Bodine

17-108* Easter (Esther) (Tice) Hill d. 25 Mar. 1824

19 MARTIN TICE as noted on P. 82 and his wife Magdaline were sponsors at several baptisms in Montgomery and at the Hebron church on the Wallkill. Because many grandparents were sponsors, it might well be the subject of investigation as to whether any of Martin's daughters were involved in these:

Elizabeth b. 12 Oct. 1765 of Friedr. Schmidt and Myrni(?)

Martin b. 19 Mar. 1774 of Jacob Leopold and Catherina

Lebanon(?) b. 17 July 1774 of John Nicol Smidt and N.N.

Maria b. 19 Mar. 1776 of Samuel Prinsen and Anna Greny(?)

Jacob b. 20 Sept. 1775 of Peter Rump and Anna Margareth

Anna, 1776, of Johannnis Pfaff and Anna

Joseph and Benjamin 12 Sept. 1776 of Robert Osborn and Agnesia

Magdaleen July 4, 1779 of Mary Copps(?)

Maria 12 Aug. 1778 of Adam Holtzlaender and Maria

Thomas 7 Sept. 1779 of Thos. Miller and Rachel

Jemima 20 Aug. 1784 of Squire Harris and Mary (sponsors Harlin(?) Teiss and uxor) (Martin Tice?)

21-136 ABRAHAM SMITH m. 19 Nov. 1811 Anna Felter

21-139 WILLIAM H. SMITH m. 17 Jan. 1814 Peggy Decker

22 HENRY TICE. When Mr. Dowling attributed my Henry's Revolutionary War record to his Henry he disregarded a number of actual records.

1. He says his Henry (should be mine) m. 30 Aug. 1792 Huldah

Van Gorder (Wawarsing Church) but the Montgomery Church records show that his "Henry Teys" and Lidia Coddington had Sally b. 17 Feb. 1793.

2. He says that Lidia died in Montgomery in 1790 but a deed in the Goshen records (H 404 of 3 Apr. 1792) of Ulster Co. says Henry Tice and Liddy, wife, sold William Bodle for £500 land in Wallkill, 93+ acres (signed Henry Tice and Lidia X Tice). Mr. Dowling even mentions this deed. He also mentioned a Kingston deed of 30 June 1810 of Henry Tice, of Montgomery, of land in Shawangunk (Henry and Lyddia his wife) to Cornelis Jansen of Shawangunk.

3. He gives Huldah as having Sally 17 Feb. 1793, Henry 1794, Isaac 2 Aug. 1796, and Jonathan whereas the Wawarsing records show Huldah had Jennie 6 Apr. 1794, Mary 10 Mar. 1796 and Anna 19 Jan. 1798. Lydia had the first set of children. He speaks of the Helvon Church instead of the Hebron.

4. My Henry's pension records say he lived for two or three years after the Revolution near Peconsink, then for about 20 years at Mamakating, then in Chemung Co.. The 1790 and later census records confirm this up to 1850. The 1790 record shows his Henry in Wallkill town and also in 1800, he then being 26-45 with males one 16-26, three 10-16 and two under 10 and females one 26-45, one 10-16 and one under 10. In 1810 his Henry was in Montgomery over 45, with one male 16-26 and two under 10 and females one over 45, one 10-16 and one under 10.

5. Cemetery inscriptions in North Chemung agree with dates of both Henry and Huldah of the pension papers. I don't know but would not be surprised if evidence is found somewhere that his Henry died in Orange or Ulster Co. It should be mentioned that Mr. Dowling later proved other Revolutionary service of Henry, 22; Lydia was bap. 27 May, 1759.

6. A separate point is made about the relatives at the censuses. At the 1800 census David #101a, Peter #101, and John Christ #17 are given as of Montgomery while those at Mamakating, besides Henry, include my Henry's father, Jost Hendrick, Henry's brothers Christopher and John, and his brother-in-law David Stage.

The two Henrys were born near each other and within about two years of each other but my Henry's family migrated before 1782 to Mamakating as explained on p. 75. After 1800 they lived about 125 miles apart by air and further, no doubt, by road and trail through the hills and along the meandering streams. There was not even a wagon road in North Chemung when my Henry moved there ca. 1810.

160 Isaac, was b. in Pine Bush instead of Pine Brook.

42 MARY (TICE) COLLSON. Jonathan d. 24 Dec. 1886, given in 1880 census as 78 b. vt. with parents b. N.H. and Mass., was living with Elizabeth 57. The "History" includes pictures of Jonathan and Mary, d. 18 Apr. 1880.

47 PHILIP TICE. From the 1860 census of Rutland Twp., Tioga Co. Pa., we get approximate years of birth for Letitia (Alletha, Lettie), (1853), and Emma (Minnie) (1854). Charles (1842) appeared instead of Oliver, so he may have had both names.

48 BETSEY (TICE) CORNELL (CORNER?). My sister, Martha, has done quite a bit of work on this, visiting a dau. of Thomas Jefferson (236-4) and studying census records and cemetery inscriptions, but we can only invent what seems a reasonable explanation. Henry Cornell, age 59, was living with Hannah, age 57, in 1850 with Betsey 19, Daniel 17, Ellis 14, and Stephen 13. Henry L. with family was living nearby. The suggested explanation is that Betsey died soon after the birth of Henry L. and Henry m. (2) Hannah -- who d. 18 Sept. 1863, age 70 yrs. 6 mos., but nothing has been found to prove that Betsey didn't live until nearly 1850 though none of the unusual Cornell names are Tice names. Henry came from Bainbridge, N.Y. and lived just north of Beantown, the farm of Frank Bean, town of Chemung, having 13 children.

101a DAVID TICE m. 2 Feb. 1794 Elizabeth Lee. George's will, the discovery of David's m. record, and other considerations seem to prove that he was one of John Christian's family, so the material under #150 in the book should be transferred here.

150 DAVID TICE - Transfer to #101a. See also P. 54 herein.

157 ANDREW TICE b. 21 Nov. 1789, d. 6 May 1860. Most herein about this family was given by Mr. Wilfred S. Dowling, some from family Bibles. In the War of 1812 Andrew enlisted at Shawangunk. On 29 Nov. 1850 he filed claim for bounty land #120 W 771, 542. Mr. Dowling gives Andrew's wife as Elizabeth McMullen b. 11 Sept. 1796. (Was that her birthday and 9 Oct. her bap.?)

- 157-467a Seth b. 1817 - have seen no reference to Seth except Mr. Dowling's listing. I have tried to identify him as one of the two or three Seth Bs of the book whose guessed dates of birth are within reason for guesses from census records. I don't know where the 1817 came from, apparently not from a family Bible. Mr. Dowling gives only the one new exact date for the children. He used two or three of my guessed dates for others. Would it be a wild guess that Seth and John O. were the same as those on P. 235 and P. 267?
- 468 Edward J. - As Mr. Dowling doesn't include any Edward J. and as he knows more about the family than anyone else, it seems safer now to treat Edward J. as "unplaced", though it is conceivable that he was son of Peter (101) who had son John who lived in Pine Bush. I have been loath to give up the idea that Edward J. was son of Andrew because he was m. in Sullivan Co. in 1840. Andrew had four young sons in Thompson in 1830 and Edward J. doesn't fit in with the other's families we know about there.
- 469* George A. b. 20 Feb. 1829
- 470* Nancy Marie b. (1819)

463, 469 and 499 GEORGE and MARY TICE. According to census records there were three sets of children about the time of the Civil War. This led to the greatest confusion in my book of a George, two with wife Mary, all of fairly reasonable ages. Of course I have always warned that census records do not constitute proof, but rather as clues for further proof. But all the proof I could find feasibly was the m. of George and Mary in 1859 and the burial of Mary in 1879 with baby Locellia in 1859, dau. of George and Mary in the same cemetery as Andrew and Elizabeth. Of course there are no vital records and I found no will, though I worked quite a bit personally in Orange, Ulster and Sullivan counties.

Also I had hired a man in Washington to search all Revolution, War of 1812 and Civil War pension records. The only one he found in this connection was of Catherine J. Tice, W. C. 370,783 of 30 Jan. 1893. His abstract says that she m. George 6 Dec. 1879 "by the Pastor of the Methodist Church, maiden name Lipsett. Neither previously married. Minister's name Rev. Richard Kikelhan". It mentions Jennie Mabel b. Dec. 6, 1889 and Annie A., aged 24. It didn't mention any battle except "George wounded at Battle of Fair Oaks". I now suppose the clarifying record is in #468,820 which Mr. Dowling mentions though I understand there may have been #720,572 and S.C. 481930.

I am now assuming that Mr. Dowling gives correct records on George A. which I am giving under #469, though much of this information I classed before as "unplaced" under #499. I am now making the rash assumption that George H. (#463) may have had two good sized families. It seems best to include only the two new accounts without trying to explain everything considered.

There may possibly be obituary notices or other information somewhere for someone else to find. So eliminate #499 and substitute the two new #463 and #469.

463 GEORGE H. TICE b. 5 Nov. 1817 d. 14 Nov. 1886 m. (1) 8 May 1841, Shawangunk, N.Y. Letitia S. Ryder b. 20 Apr. 1822 Ulster Co., N.Y. who d. 26 Apr. 1855, dau. of John Rider. He apparently m. (2) Mary -- d. 26 Jan. 1879 age 48-3-22. The principal reasons for placing this George as son of George H. (#155) are the names George, William, Jerome and Charlotte.

468 EDWARD J. TICE b. (1816) N.Y. m. 1840, Sullivan Co., (according to the pension papers on his son George W.) Eliza Jane Clute b. (1817-8 d. 22 Feb. 1895). In 1850 he was a farmer in Concord, Jefferson Co., Wisc. and apparently lived in Dunn Co., Wisc., 1856-9 and d. 14 July 1859. The only letter received from a descendant guessed that Jane's husband was William and that he drowned by accident while trying officially to transfer public money from one county to another. Jane was living in Dunn in 1860 with the then family George W. 15, Sarah J. 13, Ostin K. 12, Sarah M. 10 and Louisa M. 3. Martha M. m. just before the 1860 census. Jane m. 1861 John Banks, was in Vanceburg in 1880 and in Sheridan, Dunn Co., in 1886 and d. in Wheeler, Wisc. 20 Feb. 1895. These are apparently the Jane and Martha M. of P.267. The 1860 census was very inaccurate with all the ch. b. N.H. (except Louisa M. and with Eliza J. 29). The 1850 census gave her as 32 with Edward J. 33, and the ch. through Peter b. N.Y. and the rest Wisc. My census searcher found John Banks 52, Eliza J. 51, both b. N.Y., Louisa 12 and Ella A. 9, both b. Wisc., all in Washington Twp., Doniphan Co., Kans. As the name of the father of these ch. Edward J. was given in the 1850 census as living with them and Jane, and a man testified about George's military service said that Eliza Jane's husband was "E.J.". An Edward Tice with wife Eliza J. bought land in 1844 and sold it in 1846 in Albany Co., N.Y. Isaac Tice, #160, bought land there in 1835 and sold land in 1840 and 1843.

P. 194 Abraham Tice 15, was servant in N. Lebanon Twp. in 1880.

If at the beginning of my investigations I had known what I later discovered, I would have incorporated this whole Md. branch as part of the Lebanon Co. Pa. family.

Almost all the new material in this chapter is from the monograph by Elinor M. Tice. Some of my previous material has been incorporated to give a more comprehensive view. She shows no doubt but that John A. (60), Daniel (61), Jonathan (62), Emanuel (66) and Samuel (67) were sons of Andrew and Catherine. She says Daniel ran a ferry across the Conocochosane Creek near Williamsport, Washington Co., Md. before 1829. She gives Catherine as b. 10 June 1760 and d. 28 Oct. 1841, bur. Clear-spring, Md. A baptismal certificate of one of their sons gives the names as Andrew Theisz (Reformed) and Catherine Household(er) (M. Luth.)

39 GEORGE TICE sold land in Miami Co. , Ohio, 1858 to 1863 and a guardian sold in 1860 for Jonah, Mary, Noah, Solomon, Elizabeth and Levi.

59-173 James, very probably the unnamed child of "Mr. Tice" bap. 26 Dec. 1844 in St. John's Reformed Church.

60 JOHN A. TICE, b. ca. 1790 Washington Co., Md. d. 1856, served in War of 1812, m. (Aug. 1817) Anna Eliza Stoner, b. 1801, both natives of Maryland according to "Portrait and Biographical Album of Muscatine Co., Iowa", which says they had 13 ch. They lived in Centerville, Wayne Co., Ind. 1829-48, then Louisa Co., Iowa where she d. 1859. He and his family moved 1849 to Grand-

William B. Tice m. 3 Feb. 1807 Ann Shires

P. 222-3 JOHN LEE TICE b. (1827) m. Sarah Pickett of Green Point, Brooklyn, b. (1837). He was b. near Newburg, N.Y., son of Amelia King who d. (1837). He was a steamboat engineer traveling along the Atlantic coast, was ship-wrecked twice and finally lost in one about 1874. His ch. were John Griggs b. 11 Dec. 1858, Estelle b. (1860), Annie b. (1853) and Ed. For what it is worth, if anything, it is noted that the account of David #101a of the Montgomery family includes Lee, Elizabeth Lee, Amelia and Newburg.

JOHN GRIGGS (GREGG) TICE - add d. 21 July 1946 m. Adaline Grissey Young and lived in Greenpoint, Bayside; Kingsland, N.J., and then 50 years in Bloomfield, N.J. They had Charlotte Katherine and Helen and six other children.

P. 227 JAN THYS from Grinshan farm hand, 1640, to Rennselaer ("Amer. Gen." 30, 43). He came so early that it scarcely seems probable that he was ancestor of any of the unplaced Tices around Albany. Conceivably he could have been the Jan Tys of P. 14 who was one of those securing the Waghaghkemeck Patent in 1697 who disappeared after that.

P. 228 GEORGE TICE - See P. 81, #106.

P. 231 DANIEL TICE was in Germany in 1776 and came to America at age of 6 according to letter of Nelson B. Goodenough 3 Aug. 1868 based on information received originally from his great-great-grandfather, Daniel. Daniel m. 19 Feb. 1805 Catheran Conterman, dau. of Adam, in the Dutch Reformed Church at Fort Plain, Montgomery Co., N. Y., 8 of 12 ch. were baptized there and lived at Danube until about 1812 when they moved to Herkimer, N.Y. and after about 14 years to German, Chenango Co., N.Y. He was alive in May 1846 when the family moved to Mich. Mr. Goodenough has a letter of 6 Jan. 1885 from Nicholas J. of Redfield, son of Daniel and Catherine: "Father had the following brothers and sisters: John, Joseph, Peter, Nicholas and I believe William. I never saw but one sister and she lived in Pa."

A Tice, name not given in printed 1790 census, was in Canajoharie, Montgomery Co., N.Y. the family being 2 men, 2 females and one slave.

OTHER SOUTHERN FAMILIES (Pp. 259-264)
North Carolina

P. 261 Henry, James, Thomas and David Tice of North Carolina all served in the Revolution ca. 1781-2 ("Register of Soldiers of No. Carolina in American Revolution").

In glancing through the No. Car. 1810 census record, I noted Jacob Tice (no young ch.), Henry (young girls only), Peter (two young boys) and Lewis Tice(?) (no young boys).

In 1820 there were Charles, Peter, Mary (widow), Lewis and James, each with at least 2 young boys.

JACOB TICE was mentioned in my book as having been in Salisbury District, Towan Co., No. Car. in 1790 census with three boys and five females. William M. Mann, Jr., of Warren, Pa. has sent me part of his very valuable and extensive monograph "Ancestors and Descendants of Dr. William Oliver Jones and His Wife Elizabeth Clay Lindsay" in which he shows Jacob's children and traced many of the descendants of his daughter Juliana. Jacob m. Elizabeth Fretchley. Her father, Peter, made an agreement with Jacob Tise in Nov. 1774 "for comfort in old age" and legacy to Elizabeth in Rowan Co. In 1778 the tax list shows an estate of 360 pounds of Jacob Tric(?) probably Tise. Jacob Tise was there as early as 7 Oct. 1773 when he bought 230 acres on Abbott's Creek. In 1804 Jacob deeded various tracts of land to the five sons mentioned and to his "son-in-law" Jacob Mock. Elizabeth apparently died in 1799 as there is a tombstone of an Elizabeth Tice then in the Bethany graveyard and she didn't sign the 1804 deeds.

P. 270 WILLIAM TICE, engineer on Central Railway of N.J. m. Anna Griffith b. ca. 1860, dau. of John Griffith and Martha Hill and had William Tice d. ca. 1912 and Edwin Tice.

I understand that no Tices appear in the printed summary of the 1830 Illinois census.

The 1830 census of Michigan Ty. included no Tice.

The 1820 census of Indiana includes Henry Tice in Fayette Co., age 26-45, with two boys and two girls under 10, wife 16-26 and another girl and John Tice in Ripley Co. with wife, each 26-45.

P. 270 VAN (?) - A letter says that Lucinda Stout, dau. of Hugh from N.J. m. -- Tice and had John, Elizabeth, Eli F., b. 18 Apr. 1856 d. 20 Oct. 1918, William H., George, Charles, Andrew, Lewis W., Emma and Francis. Could these have been grandchildren of Van? A letter received says Hugh Stout and his father Ephraim went to Ore. in 1843.

P. 270 HENRY TICE. The earliest United Empire Loyalist record shows that Henry Tice with a few others landed at Forth Town or Adolphistown -- having left Sorel the 21st May 1784 to navigate the rapids of the St. Lawrence in a large fleet of bateaux supplied by the Government. (United Empire Loyalist Assoc. of Canada, VII, 41.)

P. 270 WILLIAM TICE according to the information gathered by Mrs. Doris C. Farebrother of Chappawa, Ont. was her great-grandfather b. 1792, d. 1858 m. (2) Leah -- who d. 1887. Presumably he came from Bucks Co., Pa. where there were Tice families but her people called Gilbert Tice (P. 24-9) "Uncle". I haven't been able to locate this family anywhere in the U.S. His ch. were Jacob, Frederick, James, Phebe, William and probably others, possibly John.

Of these Jacob b. 28 Aug. 1823, d. 13 Feb. 1912 m. Catherine Teeft b. 1829, d. 1913. These were first found in the Canadian census in 1851 in Canborough Twp., Haldimand Co.
